SCHENECTADY, July 17 .- The New tork Athletic Club's evenly balanced red an overwhelming victory n the junior metropolitan track field championships, contested on Electric A. A. here. The rout of the lrish American A. C., was complete, for the latter's standard bearers scored only Il points, against 85 for the New Yorkcolored boys of the Salem C. finished with 14 points. performances were impossible track, which was in abominable revents. Jim Lincoln, who expects to represent his club in the national champienships at San Francisco, hurled the lavelin 181 feet 1 inch, bettering not only the best junior figures but the seniors as well. The senior record of 173 feet was made by George Bronder, present national title holder, and the junior of 168 feet by V. C. Eliot.

Wesley Oler's high jump record of 6 feet 1; inch was beaten an eighth of an inch by his young clubmate, E. Loescher, who is developing into one of the best jumpers in the East.

the best jumpers in the East.

Lincoln's mark was made when there was a wind at his back, but because of his consistency with the spear shaped missle in the trials his record undoubtedly will be accepted.

Notwithstanding the poor condition of the cinder path, in which the athletes found it practically impossible to gain a good footing, the track contests were high class, and at least two were won by inches. Jim O'Neill of the New Yorks lost a title because he faltered Yorks lost a title because he faltered in the last ten yards of the mile. American owners are giving every encouragement to the British in the maintaining of turf classics which have suffered greatly by the European war. Entries for the Derby and Oaks of 1918 closed yesterday with Walter S. Vos. burgh, racing secretary of the Jockey Club. Though the list of nominations will not be published until they have been received by the English authorities it is understood that American owners have contributed liberally.

Among those who have made nominations are Herman B. Duryea. August Belmont, Harry Payne Whitney, John E. Madden and John Sanford.

Young Phil Carter Finds Less Difficulty in Final at Sleepy Hollow.

MORNING ROUNDS BETTER

Carter of Nassau won the Sleepy Hollow ment to-day and triumphed over Theodore V. Bermingham of Wykagyl in the final in unexpectedly easy fashion, the margin of victory being 6 up and 5 to play. In the semi-final round this mornng Carter disposed of Gardiner W. play, while Bermingham was putting out Hamilton K. Kerr, Greenwich, the newly crowned Connecticut champion, by 5 up

Although Carter played excellent golf this afternoon it hardly was necessary as both took two putts the match went to the Montelair player, who is also a member of the Frankford, Pa., Golf Club.
